The European Political Community

The European Political Community aims to

- foster political dialogue and cooperation to address issues of common interest
- strengthen the security, stability and prosperity of the European continent

This platform for political coordination does not replace any existing organisation, structure or process, and does not aim to create new ones at this stage.

So far, the European Political Community has met three times.

At the first meeting in October 2022, leaders mainly discussed peace and security issues, especially Russia's war in Ukraine, and the energy crisis.

At the following meeting in June 2023, they discussed joint efforts for peace and security, energy resilience, and connectivity and mobility in Europe.

In Granada in October 2023, leaders discussed how to make Europe more resilient, prosperous and geostrategic
